Boulanger Elected.

He Receives a Majority of Over Fifty Thousand.

THE MINISTRY TO RESIGN.

M. Rousier Will Probably Be Called on to Form a Cabinet—The Election Passes Off Very Quietly—How the News Was Received in London—Other Foreign News.

PARIS, Jan. 28.—The complete returns from the department of the Seine give Boulanger 244,070, Jacques, 162,520; Bourie, 16,700, and other candidates 10,550. During Saturday night there was much excitement and considerable disorder throughout the city. Many brawls and street fights occurred, which in some cases were very serious. The disorder was particularly great in the vicinity of Montmartre and Faubourg temple, where quite a large number of persons were wounded. The morning opened bright and fair and the streets were thronged at an early hour. The electors were very active and all indulged in predicting the nearest figure to the actual vote shown by the returns. The Boulangerists were alert and displayed surprising confidence throughout. The workingmen's vote, upon which the issue depended, was mainly cast for Boulanger. The newspapers displayed unprejudiced energy in their arrangements for securing returns.

The most remarkable phase of the election was the perfect discipline of the Boulangerists, which affords another example of Boulanger's wonderful skill as an organizer. Each of 550 polling places in the department was guarded by members of the Patriotic League, who worked like beavers during the day, and the outcome attests the faithfulness of their work.

The Boulangerists, confident of success, had arranged for an immense banquet at the Cafe Duran to celebrate their victory as soon as the result should be known. At 10 o'clock the apertures to the cafe were lined with troops, and the basement of the Madeline was filled with soldiers in readiness to pounce upon the crowd in the event of a row. The banquet took place, however, without the attendance of any unusual disturbance.

When the announcement was made that Boulanger had probably received a majority of 100,000, the adherents of Boulanger were dumbfounded. The police, military and other officials immediately made preparations to suppress any disorder that might grow out of the disillusionments of the followers of the doughty general or the discomfiture of his adversaries and for awhile the excitement was intense, though it was manifested chiefly in noisy rather physical demonstration.

There was great excitement in the boudoirs after the result of the election became known. The police were not aggressive, but their presence in strong force restrained whatever intent to do violence to the disturbances may have lurked in the breasts of the more jubilant or discomfited of the crowd. Ten thousand persons alternately sang and cheered outside the Cafe Duran, especially when Gen. Boulanger appeared at a window and bowed his acknowledgements. When Boulanger upon alighting from his carriage passed the restaurant opposite the Cafe Duran, where the friends of the government were assembled, he was vehemently hissed by the adherents of the ministry. The Boulangerists replied with a shower of stones and the hissing ceased. The singing of patriotic songs in the streets was continued until long after daylight.

The latest rumors indicate that the government must resign immediately and it is stated that President Carnot, foreseeing this, has decided to request M. Rousier to attempt to form a ministry. It is impossible to overestimate the gravity of the situation. A crisis seems inevitable. Boulanger's success being assured, M. Rousier and in view of the difficulty which naturally must be encountered in bringing together a stable cabinet—a task which now seems almost impossible—the likelihood of the formation of a species of provincial government as a last resort seems very great.

Gen. Boulanger will resign his seat for the department of the Seine, to which he was elected yesterday, and retain his representation in the chamber of deputies of the department of the Nord.

THE CABINET READY TO RESIGN.

Austria's General, Hugo Fritsch, Suddenly Dies in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Austrian consul-general, Hugo Fritsch, died suddenly last night at his residence in this city. His death was due to heart disease from which the consul had suffered more or less for years.

Chevalier de Fritsch—this being the title conferred upon him for long and distinguished service to his government—was a well known and favorite figure in New York society. He was of powerful physique and commanding stature, and was a noted athlete and patron of many sports. He leaves a wife and two children.

A VACANT CONSULATE.

Austria's General, Hugo Fritsch, Suddenly Dies in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The Austrian consul-general, Hugo Fritsch, died suddenly last night at his residence in this city. His death was due to heart disease from which the consul had suffered more or less for years.

Chevalier de Fritsch—this being the title conferred upon him for long and distinguished service to his government—was a well known and favorite figure in New York society. He was of powerful physique and commanding stature, and was a noted athlete and patron of many sports. He leaves a wife and two children.

The chevalier was forty-three years old, a native of Vienna, and had been connected with the Austrian consulate here since 1869. He was a cousin of Theodore Hayneberg, and his wife is a daughter of Dr. S. T. Gilbert, a wealthy New York.

He was considered perhaps the best whip in America, and was a leading spirit in the coaching club. He was a member of the Knickerbocker, New York Yacht and Coney Island Jockey clubs and of the Jerome Park Trotting association. He had a summer residence at Newport.

A Twenty Mile Skate.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 28.—Five thousand people witnessed the twenty mile skating race for the championship of the world at the base ball park yesterday between Axel Paulson and Rudolph Goetz, of Milwaukee. It was easily won by Paulson, who made the twenty miles in one hour eight minutes and thirty seconds.

PRIZE FIGHT POSTPONED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—The California Athletic club have postponed the Blakely-Carroll light-weight match for six weeks. The fight was to have taken place next Tuesday night, but the postponement is necessary on account of Carroll having severely injured his leg while exercising.

Death of Charles Henry Hurd.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 28.—Charles Henry Hurd, formerly superintendent of the Michigan Central railway, and proprietor of the well known Hurd farm near here, died Saturday, aged seventy.

definite result was possible much earlier than was expected, and while it aroused considerable discussion it caused no surprise.

LONDON PRESS COMMENTS.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The Standard says Paris never did a more insane and ignominious act than she has in this election.

The News says the result is due to the unpatriotic and unscrupulous conduct of the Conservatives.

THE EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY.

BERLIN, Jan. 28.—On the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of his birth, the emperor yesterday received at White Hall a number of sovereigns of German states, Princes, Bishops & the Imperial Ministers, Count Von Moltke, the diplomatic corps, many Knights of the Red and Black Eagle, and a large number of other distinguished persons, all of whom congratulated the emperor on his birthday. The guards' colors were removed from the palace to the castle. The emperor in issuing an order eulogizing the guards and lauding their achievements expressed hope of his ability to maintain the glory of the several Prussian regiments which had received the names of the famous families which had been connected with their traditions and glorious and honorable deeds. The enthusiasm in Berlin and the provinces over the event is very great. The emperor's mother, Empress Frederick, Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, King Humbert of Italy, and Queen Victoria sent their congratulations by letter or telegraph.

THE WHITE PRISONER NOT ENFIN PASHA.

SUAKIN, Jan. 28.—A prominent merchant who has arrived here from Khartoum confirms the report that the English was defeated by Semussi. He also declares that the white prisoner was not a European, and certainly not Emin, who sent the prisoner a copy of the khedive's letter to encourage him.

FOREIGN NOTES.

The pope's condition is critical.

Lord Newcastle will be made minister to Turkey.

A seaman's strike and riot occurred at Liverpool.

Austrian officials are fearful of war in case of Boulanger's election.

No offers of financial aid were made at a meeting of Panama shareholders.

An American, supposed to be George S. Dryer, committed suicide at a London hotel. Bismarck spoke in the rush hour on the East Africa question. The bill was referred to committee against his protest.

NO INVASION OF OKLAHOMA.

Pawnee Bill Will Not Carry Out His Threat Next Friday.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—J. F. Wade, the youngest colonel in the United States army, arrived with his sister at the Leland yesterday. Col. Wade is the commander of Fort Reno in the Indian Territory, and is the man Pawnee Bill will have to cope with if he attempts to make any entry upon Oklahoma. The colonel gives it as his opinion, however, that neither Pawnee Bill nor any one else is going to do anything so rash. He says he never heard of Pawnee Bill until recently, and that with all the investigations he has been able to make he can find no indication of any such raid being contemplated as the papers are continually publishing yarns about. Col. Wade says he knows the people down there well; knows they are a roving, nomadic class, and would be willing at any time to jump in and grab whenever there is a reservation opened, but from what he has seen he finds it hard to believe that any unknown adventurer like Pawnee Bill could gather adherents enough to carry out such a scheme.

"It was tried once about six years ago by Capt. Payne, but he was hustled out of the section too quick," said Col. Wade. "I heard that Wichita was the grand rendezvous of Pawnee Bill's troops, and on my way here I stopped there to investigate, but could find nothing to prove the truth of the report, and the more I think of the matter and the more I look into it the less true I have of any denunciation of the kind."

FROM DAKOTA.

Ed. STAR—I have been asked by one of your correspondents to write a letter for the STAR, and, as I am one of the tenor Marion county boys, I will endeavor to do so.

We my wife and I came here Nov. 8, and entered into our work on the Cavour, charge of the M. E. Church, Huron district, Dakota. We found one fine frame church in town, and on inquiry we learned that we had another appointment in one of the modern prairie temples of the West. We started out to go and preach our first sermon, and to our surprise we found a little sod church on the plains, 21 miles, with shingle roof. Some might think that not much of a congregation would gather there, but more than seventy-five people met that day to worship the same god that is worshipped in the brick and stone churches of the East, and hence kind, sociable and willing people they pay a salary of $250 at this place and are getting ready to build a new church soon. Our charge pays $750 and furnishes a parsonage.

Now about the Dakota Indians. When we came here they were talking about big bands, but as yet we have not seen any. The winter so far has been nice and warm, with the exception of a light snow-fall some time since. The people of Mitchell held a basket dinner on the 2d of Nov. and the people of Huron on the 3d. The weather is still cold, but the days are getting longer and the sun is getting warmer. The temperature has been about 40 degrees below zero, but the snow is not so bad as it was.

The people here are very poor, and the standard of living is very low. The Indians are the same as they were in the old days, but the white men have learned to live like them.

Senator Cole's bill, which has passed the Ohio House, provides that any person who shall have performed mechanical labor upon or furnished supplies to any railroad, turnpike, plank road, canal, or any public structure, including piles, culverts or foundations for the same, side-tracks, embankments, excavations, or any public works, protecting, delivering or placing ties, or track laying, whether furnished to any company, corporation, contractor, subcontractor, or any individual, shall have a first and immediate lien on the whole of the property on which said work is done and to which such supplies have been contributed, and to perfect such lien it provides for filing an itemized account of work done or materials furnished, sworn to, showing the balance due, with the Recorder of the county in which the work was done, to be enforced as provided by law for the enforcement of other such liens. It also provides that any civil engineer who is employed in surveying or cross-sectioning a railroad, canal, etc., shall, before the work is commenced, make accurate measurement of the same, prepare a profile of each section of one mile, showing the quantity of each class of work on said mile, and furnish on demand, when any work is finished, to any contractor or person, a final statement of quantities in each class of work done or supplies or materials furnished by parties interested.

—Misses Ella Hannegan and Terresa Greammy are visiting Miss Agnes Hannegan, in Richwood.

—Mrs. Wesley Harsch has been quite ill for more than two weeks with spinal trouble, but is reported to be getting better.

—According to present arrangements our office will be moved on Wednesday. There will be no paper the day the removal is made.

—There is general regret that the heavy snow did not find a solid foundation. Had the roads been frozen there would now be excellent sleighing.

—John Bland, a switchman in the C. and A. yards, had his left hand caught between the bumpers, in making a coupling Saturday night, and had his thumb pinched off.

—Thus J. Stocks, the efficient and able salesman at Frast's, was taken suddenly ill Saturday night, and the engagement of himself and Chas. Phillips at Ladd's was necessarily canceled.

—The local dramatic company of more than ordinary merit will produce "From Street to Mansion" at Music Hall tonight. The play is by a Marion author, and there is much in it to interest a large audience.

—The Erie had another wreck east of Mansfield Sunday night but it was not of such serious consequences as some of the big wrecks that recently occurred. Train wrecks were considerably delayed. A report appears in our telegraph columns.

—A St. Paul dispatch says C. H. Warner, a "rogue" advertiser located there is a fraud. Warner is fellow who advertises to be an agent of London importers and will supply silk etc. very cheaply, requiring remittance with the order. All money sent to him is the same as cash away, for he is a perfect fraud. The better rule is trust home dealers whom you know.

—A local's sale Saturday, the Dalton lot on Park street was sold to W. E. and C. B. Seaman for $207, to satisfy the claim in the case of Margaret Schultz vs. Bridget Baldwin et al. A tract of land, about 4 acres, belonging to J. F. Peter and situated south of town, was sold to G. B. Smidler for $400, to satisfy judgment in the case of J. G. Laffer ex rel. vs. J. F. Peter.

—Margaret has a case of fits away with her wife. About two months ago Sandy Snyder began suit for divorce from Sandy Snyder, alleging cruelty and drunkenness as her grounds. Sandy was then in California, but suddenly returned. The divorce case would not have a hearing until next month and now Sandy and his wife have rendered a court decision unnecessary by suddenly skipping off for the South together.

—The two cent a mile bill passed the House and is now before the Senate. This is a bill which directly interests every person in Ohio, and should by all means become a law. New York State has such a law and it has proved itself successful. The law would be of benefit to our people. If railroads can sell 1000 mile tickets for $20, they certainly could afford to sell lesser distance tickets at the same rates. There is no credit system on the railroad, their business is all cash and they can afford to stand the one cent a mile reduction.

—The Library boys have the laugh on an obstinate book agent who didn't propose to have the work he was selling go into the Library. The book, Manual of Mechanical Practice, is very valuable, and the Library Association desired to procure it, but the agent not only refused to sell it for that purpose but would sell to no private party unless they would agree that the Library should not get it. While he was stumping about a Library member was found who had the two books, morocco bound, set off, were immediately purchased and placed in the Library, and the irate agent carried on to see them.

—New Washington Herald. Dr. Koller informed us last evening, that all of the small postmen northwest of this place are rapidly increasing. He dismissed all of the postmen yesterday. Peter Koller is able to keep it and do work. They have come in to renovate and dismantle the house. All the papering on the walls is being taken down. The work of clearing the house will be thorough. The schools opened as Monday and the churches were open on Sunday with a fair attendance. Business is going on with its former vigor.

—Mr. Scott has completed a large addition with the extended corporate offices. All the many additions to Marion are to appear much more emphatically than words express it.

—B. G. BARGAINS are supplied each for 10 days then $1000 within 150 feet of Center and only five squares from court
